

The End of the International Order? The Impact of Longstanding Challenges and the War in Ukraine

The Japan Institute of International Affairs will host a special seminar on the decline of the international order and nuclear disarmament with Dr. Joseph F. Pilat, Program Manager at the National Security Office, Los Alamos National Laboratory.

Speaker: Dr. Joseph F. Pilat

Moderator: Nobumasa Akiyama

Director, Center for Disarmament
Science and Technology

19 September 2025
9:30-11:00 AM. (JST)

Doors Open at 9:15

✦ Free Admission

✦ Hybrid (in-person and online)

Please select either online or in-person attendance and register via the application form below.

Online: <https://x.gd/k1R4A>

In-person: <https://forms.office.com/r/NwtL3jU2ms>

Venue: The Japan Institute of International Affairs

Access Map

3F, Toranomon Daibiru-East Bldg,
3-8-1 Kasumigaseki, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo

3 minute-walk from Toranomon Station
on Tokyo Metro Ginza Line

Dr. Joseph F. Pilat

Program Manager, National Security Office, Los Alamos
National Laboratory.

Please note that due to limited seating, seats will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. In-person registration will close once full seating capacity has been reached. We appreciate your understanding.